QUIZ BOWL

Congratulations to the faculty members, led by Professor Brannon Denning, who were the winners of the Student / Faculty Challenge in yesterday's Quiz Bowl!

WILLIAMS FRESHMAN TRIAL COMPETITION

The finals of the Parham H. Williams Trial Competition will be held at 2:00 on Wednesday, March 8 in the Moot Courtroom. The finalists in the competition are Josh Andrews, Sigfredo Rubio, Heath Brooks and Chris Wooten. Dean Parham Williams, founder of Cumberland's 1L competition and former Dean of Cumberland School of Law, will be the presiding judge.

RASCAL DAY

On Thursday, March 9 at 11:00 AM, the Law School will honor the memory of Rascal, the only recipient of the Doctor of Canine Jurisprudence degree, at the annual Rascal Memorial Procession. Students, faculty, and friends of the Law School (along with their pets) will proceed behind a New Orleans-style jazz band from the foot of Samford's Centennial Walk (line up @ 10:55 AM) to the Riley Road entrance of the Law School.

According to Cumberland tradition, Rascal was a mongrel pup who faithfully attended classes at the law school's former home in Lebanon, Tennessee, beginning in 1933, and in 1937 he was presented the rare degree of Doctor of Canine Jurisprudence. Rascal passed away in 1940, and was buried with much ceremony beneath the window where he attended classes. When Cumberland moved to Birmingham in 1961, Rascal's tombstone and a few spadefuls of dirt were brought to the Samford Campus, and again interred at Blackacre, on the west side of Robinson Hall.

After a moving eulogy, mourners and pets will enjoy a hotdog lunch served by Cumberland faculty. As always, judges will be awarding prizes in several categories, including the Best Dressed Dog, the Best Trick, the dog most resembling its owner, the smallest and largest dog, and the dog that most represents the spirit of Rascal.

Make sure you and your pet come out for a great afternoon of live music, free food and prizes in this fun-filled tradition honoring Rascal, Cumberland's own CJD.

ASIAN LAW STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Asian genes are not required.

Come join the Asian Law Student Association (ALSA) on Tuesday, March 14, 2006 Room 120, at 5:00 PM.

Within the last five years, many global corporations such as Honda and Mercedes have been attracted to the state of Alabama. In addition, the ease of opening a small business has attracted many Asians to Birmingham. Finally, with the University of Alabama at Birmingham in the heart of downtown, the Asian culture is flourishing as more Asians from around the world come to obtain their professional degrees. As a result, the Asian population in our State has seen a tremendous increase.

We invite you to join us as we discuss the impact of this new growth on Birmingham's legal community and its ramifications on legal issues.

Our goals are:

- To cultivate diversity throughout the Birmingham legal community and Cumberland School of Law

- To provide a forum for Cumberland professors, students, and staff to express concerns and provide resources for networking within the community.
- To act as a liaison between the Birmingham legal community and minority students of Cumberland.

Remember, everyone is welcome. Bring a friend and make some new ones!
