Cordell Hull Speakers Forum to Discuss Stand Your Ground Laws

On Thursday, April 9, from 11 a.m to noon in, Cumberland School of Law's Cordell Hull Speakers Forum will host Associate Dean and Professor of Law Tamara Lawson of St. Thomas University School of Law. Lawson will present, "Stand Your Ground Laws: The Dilemma of Discretion, Race and Culture." Free food will be provided at a reception on Brewer Plaza following the lecture.

The lecture, held in the Great Room, will cover modern self-defense laws, commonly referred to as "stand your ground laws." Lawson will discuss the dynamics of the discretionary decisions made by legislatures, prosecutors, judges, and juries in controversial homicide cases like the Trayvon Martin/George Zimmerman case, as well as other high profile criminal cases.

Lawson teaches criminal law, criminal procedure and evidence law and has conducted extensive research on Florida's Stand-Your-Ground law as well as self-defense laws nationally. She has also made multiple media appearances on these issues, and has written an article and a book chapter on the Trayvon Martin case. The event is free and open to the public.

2Ls Place in Top Eight at Mock Trial Challenge

“These 2Ls conducted themselves like true ‘Cumberland Lawyers’ in that they had a blast trying their cases while also having a good time with the other teams afterwards.”

A team of second-year students from Cumberland School of Law competed in the South Texas College of Law Mock Trial Challenge from March 26 to March 28. Cumberland’s team faced off against teams from 36 top-ranked trial programs invited to compete in the Challenge. Despite Cumberland’s youth, the team advanced to the quarterfinals finishing in the top eight. Congratulations are in order to national trial team members: Stewart Alvis, Hope Beaton, Collin Hatcher and Priyanka Patel. Additionally, Stewart Alvis was named Outstanding Advocate of the preliminary rounds. Cumberland’s victories came against University of California Berkeley School of Law, Georgetown University School of Law, Texas Southern Thurgood Marshall School of Law and Chapman University Fowler School of Law.

The team was coached by W.M. Bains Fleming III (Class of 2007) (Norman, Wood, Kendrick & Turner) and J. Ross Massey (Class of 2011) (Alexander Shunnarah Injury Lawyers). Coach Fleming stated “I am not only proud but impressed by their advocacy and poise under pressure.” Coach Massey added

SBA Elections: Letters of Intent Due Thursday

All candidates interested in running in the 2015-2016 Student Bar Association Elections must submit an electronic letter of intent, which is available from now until Thursday April 9 at 4 p.m. No letters of intent will be accepted after this time. You can find the letter of intent here. All candidates must also attend a mandatory meeting on Sunday April 12 at 5:30 p.m. in the SBA office.

The SBA encourages everyone interested to sign up. There have been some fairly substantial changes to the election rules and to the school's constitution that may affect your ability to run for certain positions as well as some campaign practices, so please review those before submitting your letter of intent.

Matt Woodham will be in charge of elections; please contact him with any questions.

Volunteers Needed for Project Homeless Connect 8!

On Saturday, April 11, from 7:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., Cumberland will join with attorneys and judges from the Birmingham area to participate in Project Homeless Connect 8! at the Boutwell Auditorium (1930 8th Avenue North, Birmingham, AL 35203). Last year, volunteers from all professions provided services to more than 800 homeless or near-homeless clients with issues ranging from misdemeanor criminal charges, social security and housing crises, to health and dental care.

Law students are needed to facilitate intake for the legal services section of PHC8! Volunteers will make initial contact with the client, run a basic search for outstanding warrants and court cases, and determine which attorney can best deal with the client's issue.

There will be an orientation/training session for students that are volunteering with Project Homeless Connect this year. Training will be Thursday, April 9 from 4:30 p.m.- 5:30 p.m. in the Friendship Room of the law library.

If you are interested in volunteering, please stop by Suite 215 and sign up or send an Email with the time you are available. There are two-hour shifts available throughout the day.

Also, all the Cumberland volunteers are asked to wear their red volunteer shirt and bring their laptop. If you don't have a volunteer shirt, you can pick one up from Suite 215. Thanks in advance for helping out.

Plan Ahead

Applications for the Spirit of Service Award are now available online. Please electronically submit applications by Tuesday April 21.

Complete Evaluations for a Chance at Pizza Party

The law school will conduct course and faculty evaluations April 13 through April 29, the day prior to exams. Having students complete these evaluations each semester is critically important to the law school. Faculty use the evaluations to improve their classes and to identify problems that require action. All students are encouraged to take a few minutes to complete evaluations for each of their courses.

Students will receive an emailed invitation for each class in which they are enrolled, requesting that they click a link in the email to evaluate a particular course and professor. There will not be a link on the website that will connect the students to their course evaluations. Student responses are entirely confidential, as there is no way to identify the author of any submitted evaluation.

SBA representatives will visit classes April 13-17 to encourage participation and answer any questions students might have regarding the process. As an incentive/reward, all students in classes achieving a 75% response rate by noon on April 20 will be eligible for a pizza party to be held on the East (Angel) Patio at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, April 23. Email Ms. Nelson or stop by Student Services if you have any questions or concerns.

Jam Before Exams

Just a Few Cats, the group that played during the Rascal Day parade, will be on campus on Thursday, April 23 to play music outdoors at the East (Angel) Patio. Music will begin at 11:00 a.m.

Professor Woody Hartzog recently traveled to China through The Chinese People's Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries as part of the first delegation of the Golden Key Workshop. The trip was co-sponsored by Microsoft (China). About the experience, Dr. Hartzog said, "This trip was an incredible opportunity to understand China's growing technology sector within the backdrop of its culture, history, and economic system. In addition to gaining a deeper appreciation for the vibrancy of China's technological entrepreneurs, I heard of the challenges they face as well. I look forward to sharing my experience with students and colleagues."

Professor Hartzog's visit will be featured in an upcoming newsletter publication.
