Cumberland Advances to Quarter Finals at UF Advocacy Tournament

The University of Florida Levin College of Law hosted its second National Trial Advocacy Tournament Friday through Saturday, October. 9-11, in Gainesville, Fla.

Cumberland's team Austin Evans (2L), Lauren Lock (2L), Priyanka Patel (3L) and Cydney Reynolds (3L) swept all but one judge ballot in the preliminaries to advance to the quarter-finals. In that trial they faced Akron and lost the round by 1 point. Congratulations to all on a great job.

Special congratulations to Lauren Lock who won the award for best closing argument. Coaches for the team were Allison Taylor, '03, and Ross Massey, '11.

Trial Advocacy Board Hosts Client Counseling Competition

The Trial Advocacy Board hosted the 2015 Governor Albert Brewer Client Counseling Competition on October 11. A group of exceptionally well-spoken Cumberland students took part in three rounds of competition simulating an initial client intake interview. Please join us in congratulating our finalists and winners:

Finalists: Miranda Coley, Nicolas Gutierrez, Kelly Masters, and Scott Woodard

Winner: Miranda Coley

Runner-Up: Kelly Masters

Several of the competitors will receive invitations to join the National Client Counseling Team later this week.

The Trial Advocacy Board also thanks the client-judges who made the evening possible: Professor Belle Stoddard, Attorneys Virginia Miller and Megan Elder, Cumberland alumna Krista Cowley, Client Counseling Team members Joey Gomez, Elise McFall, and Michelle Spiker, Associate Client Counseling Director Neil Zaveri, and Senior Trial Board Member Richard Sarrell.

Cumberland Offers 3Ls Discounts on Bar Review

The law school is finalizing arrangements with BarBri and Kaplan to help students pay for bar review courses. Students have received emails with further details about the structure of the programs. BarBri and Kaplan will hold informational meetings each semester to describe their courses and services.

A deadline will be set by which students must select which of these courses they wish to take. December 2015 graduates must select either the BarBri or Kaplan course by 3:00 p.m. on Thurs., October 15. May graduates will have to select early in the spring semester. Pam Nelson will send an email to provide details about (i) how you must notify us of your choice and (ii) how and when you will need to pay your portion of the cost. If you have questions about these arrangements, you may contact Pam Nelson or Dean Strickland.

To assist in decisions, BarBri and Kaplan will hold informational meetings, open to all 3Ls, to describe their courses and services at the following times:

BarBri: Tues., October 13 at 11:00 a.m. in Room 123.

Kaplan: Thurs., October 15 at 11:00 a.m. in Room 114.

In addition to these sessions, you may view information about BarBri and Kaplan via their YouTube videos.

Spring Course Registration Updates

Spring 2016 Registration for Advanced Trial Advocacy Course

If you would like to be considered for the spring 2016 Advanced Trial Advocacy course, please send an email to Mrs. Tracy Luke.

Students are selected for the course based on their overall GPA, Basic Skills grade, and Evidence grade. If you have not completed Basic Skills, Mrs. Luke will estimate your final grade for this process.

Only 12 students will be selected. Note: Advanced Trial WILL NOT be offered during the fall 2016 semester.

Spring 2016 Externship Registration Meeting

Would you like to work for a federal judge, the District Attorney, or a corporation for class credit? These are some of the positions available through Cumberland's externship program.

Spring 2016 registration meeting for Externships will be held Tues. October 13, in room 121 from 11:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Information packets and registration materials will be available at this meeting. Professor Young will be on hand to explain the program and answer any questions you may have.

If you do not attend the meeting you can pick up the packet in suite 201 after 1:00 p.m. on October 13.

Consideration for placements will first be extended to those that attend the meeting and return their applications by the deadline.

Competitions Take Place Throughout Fall

- The Intraschool Mediation Competition will take place on Sun., October 18 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. If you have any questions, contact Landon Graham or Richard Sarrell.
- Cumberland will be hosting the ABA Regional Negotiation Competition Saturday November 14 - Sunday November 15.

3L Graduation Announcements

- Bulldog Blastoff! – If you are a December graduate, you should have received information from Samford regarding a commencement fair to be held Wed., October 21, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the lobby of the Pete Hanna Center. ALL December graduates need to attend. This year, for the first time, the university is issuing graduation regalia at the commencement fair. May graduates will participate in a similar commencement fair to be held in the spring.

- Composite Photographs – Fraternal Composite will be in the Friendship Room of the Law Library, 9 a.m.- noon and 2:00 –4:00 p.m., on October 27-28 to photograph all graduating 3Ls for inclusion in a large composite photograph to be displayed at the law school. Appointments may be scheduled in the Student Services Office. Important notes: Professional dress (waist up) is required. Photographs from our internal facebook may not be used.

- Diploma Form – Students should complete the Graduation Diploma Form at <https://cumberland.samford.edu/form/graduation-candidate-diploma-form> to let us know how you wish to have your name listed on your diploma and the address to which you wish to have your diploma mailed.

- December Commencement – Everyone is welcome to attend December commencement exercises to be held on Sat., December 12 at 10:00 a.m. in the Pete Hanna Center on the Samford campus. The university does not limit the number of guests each student may invite, so feel free to come out and celebrate with your classmates who plan to walk in the fall commencement.

We will send additional information throughout the year. Be sure to mark your calendar for important dates and let Mrs. Nelson know if you have questions.

State Bar of Georgia Representative to Visit

Come join the Georgia Student Bar in welcoming the State Bar of Georgia to Cumberland on Thurs. October 22 at 11 a.m. in room 115. Everyone is invited. A representative from the bar will provide some very helpful information about bar membership, the Ga. bar exam, subjects covered on the Ga. bar, Ga. bar and exam application deadlines, suggested classes to take at Cumberland and much more. There will be an opportunity for a Q&A and food will be provided. RSVP by Oct. 20. Contact Shadi Jaraysi for more information.

Birmingham Bar Association Offers Scholarships

The Memorial Scholarship Committee of the Birmingham Bar Association meets each year to determine the recipients of scholarships in the amount of $2,500.00 each. Second or third year law students from either Cumberland School of Law, The University of Alabama School of Law, Birmingham School of Law, or Miles Law School are eligible to apply.

Two scholarships are awarded annually by the Scholarship Committee. The scholarships are based upon several factors, including financial need. Applications will be accepted beginning August 1, and the deadline to submit is Fri., October 30. Awards will be made directly to the recipients' law schools for the Spring 2016 semester.
