Congratulations to the Following Students:

Donworth Moot Court Competition Finalists and Winners

After a very challenging semi-final round argued in front of local attorneys and National Moot Court Team coaches, four finalists were selected to advance to the final round of the Donworth Competition. 2016 Donworth Moot Court Final Four: Laney Gifford, Travis Johns, Lindsey Catlett and Xan Ingram. Our panel of guest judges were extremely impressed with every finalist's performance.

The Henry Upson Sims Executive Moot Court Board extends a warm congratulations to the winners of the 2016 Donworth Freshman Moot Court Competition: Laney Gifford, Best Oralist and Lindsey Catlett, Runner-Up

Plan Ahead

Spirit of Service Awards Now Accepted

The Law School annually recognizes students, faculty and staff who have completed 30 hours or more of public interest/pro bono legal work and/or community service during the academic school year. The recognition comes in the form of the Spirit of Service Award Certificate. You are encouraged to apply and receive recognition for the valuable contributions you have made.

Examples of qualifying work include: Street Law, VITA, Teen Court, Legal Services, Pro Bono Week, Project Homeless Connect, the 1L Service Project, work done through Law School organizations like the Community Services Organization, Women in Law, BLSA, and the Christian Legal Society, as well as work done through your favorite charitable organization or your church. You do not have to complete all 30-hours through the same organization.

The application process for the award operates on the honor system – the service hours you submit are the service hours that will be recognized. Applications are now being accepted and are due on Tues., April 12, 2016.

Apply Now for Summer Public Interest Fellowship

The 2016 Summer Public Interest Fellowship application is now available and can be completed online. The application deadline is Tues., April 5, 2016. Contact Charmayne Fillmore or Cassandra Adams for more information.

For an up-to-date look at the Law School's Events, visit the Online Calendar.

BBA Offers Special Program for Student Members

A Special Program for BBA Law Student Members will take place on Thur., April 7 from 4-5:30 p.m. at the The Bar Center. "Transitions: From Law School to Law Practice," is a non-CLE program specially designed for law students, but all are welcome to attend. Please RSVP.

ABA Offers Free Student Membership

The American Bar Association offers FREE membership to all law students. They provide valuable services, including the following benefits:

- The opportunity to build your resumes by participating in legal skills contests and applying for fellowships;
- The exploration of practice areas when you join up to five legal specialty groups, such as the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar, for FREE; and
- Finding your first job by searching the ABA job board and gaining advice from experts at the career center.

You may contact lawschoolinfo@americanbar.org for more information.

Students Invited to Free Entertainment Law CLE

Cumberland CLE, with Indian Creek Management, LLC presents: Risky Business: Financing and Distributing Independent Films

Students are invited to attend a CLE seminar free of charge on Fri., April 8. The "Risky Business: Financing and Distributing Independent Films" seminar explores how independent films are financed and distributed. The lunch hour will provide a great opportunity for networking. Mark Litwak is a veteran entertainment attorney. His practice includes work in the areas of copyright, trademark, contract, multimedia law, intellectual property, and book publishing. Students interested in Entertainment Law may find the seminar particularly relevant.

Fri., April 8, 2016 from 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. (Check-in at 8 a.m.)
Samford University's Sullivan-Cooney Field House
To register for the program, please email Karen Larsen.

Law School Announcements

Cordell Hull Event Features Three Judges in Panel Presentation

The Cordell Hull Speaker's Forum will be Tues., April 12 at noon in the great room. The event, "A Conversation: Restrictions Placed Upon Judicial Candidates' Freedom of Speech," will feature speakers Judge Joseph Boohaker, Judge Pat Ballard and Judge Shantá Owens in a panel presentation. The event is free to attend and open to the public.

Fall 2016 Course Registration Now Open

Summer 2016 registration will open at 8:30 a.m. on Fri., April 1. Summer registration is completed completely online. There is no waitlist during the registration period. When classes close due to max enrollment, there are no exceptions or permission granted for extra seats in closed classes.

Fall 2016 Bid Point Registration opened at 8:30 a.m. on Tues. March 29, in the office of law student records. Registration forms and materials will be available beginning on the 29th. Registration will continue until 4:30 p.m. on Fri. April 1. The order in which student's registration materials are received during this time will not affect his/her priority in the registration process. If registration materials are turned in after 4:30 p.m. on April 1, the registration will be considered late and the student will only be registered after all timely-submitted registrations have been processed. Beginning with the class of 2018, students will be required to take Business Organizations no later than the fourth semester and Wills, Trusts, and Estates no later than the fifth semester.

Prior to registration, please take a moment to check your university account to make sure there are no holds. If there is a hold on your account for any reason, courses cannot be entered and your registration will be considered as late.

Schedules and grids of summer and fall classes are available both online and in the office of law student records.

Submit Nominations for Outstanding Adjunct Professor Award

To recognize the hard work and devotion of Cumberland's adjunct faculty, one adjunct professor will be selected each year to receive an award tentatively titled "Outstanding Adjunct Professor Award." The criteria and some of the procedures in place for selecting the Jackson Teaching Award recipients from full time faculty will be used.

The criteria for the Award considered by the Committee shall include (i) mastery of subject matter; (ii) ability to convey information effectively to students; (iii) demonstrated enthusiasm for teaching; (iv) commitment to excellence in the classroom; (v) innovation in teaching techniques; and (vi) commitment to students.

Please submit your nomination in the form of a letter or email that describes why you believe your nominee deserves the award. The Jackson Award committee, which is composed of students and full time faculty, will select the recipient from your nominations. Nominations are due by Fri., April 1.

Career Development Events

Have you ever wondered what career options exist outside of private practice? The Career Development Office invites you to attend the Alternative Careers Panel, featuring Cumberland Graduates: Breana Peterson of Alabama Power, Corporate Real Estate; Allison Dearing of Crisis Center Inc., Campus Violence Prevention and Response; and J.W. Carpenter of Birmingham Education Foundation, Executive Director.
