Team Reaches Elite Eight at National Trial Competition

The team of Stewart Alvis and Collin Hatcher reached the Elite Eight at the national finals of the National Trial Competition in Dallas, Texas this past weekend becoming the fifth Cumberland School of Law team to reach the national quarterfinals in the past six years. The team was assisted by fellow student Amanda Herren in preparation for the competition.

Over 300 teams competed in the 41st annual National Trial Competition, co-sponsored by the American College of Trial Lawyers and the Texas Young Lawyers Association. Alvis and Hatcher faced teams from the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law, University of Cincinnati College of Law, California Western School of Law and Yale Law School. The team was coached by Judge Jim Roberts '94, Sara Williams '06 and Jeremy Hazelton '02.

Judge Jim Roberts, Stewart Alvis, Collin Hatcher, and Sara Williams celebrate at the banquet.

This Week's Events

For an up-to-date look at the Law School's Events, visit the Online Calendar.

Students Invited to Free Entertainment Law CLE

Students are invited to attend a CLE seminar free of charge on Fri., April 8. The "Risky Business: Financing and Distributing Independent Films" seminar explores how independent films are financed and distributed. The lunch hour will provide a great opportunity for networking. Mark Litwak is a veteran entertainment attorney. His practice includes work in the areas of copyright, trademark, contract, multimedia law, intellectual property, and book publishing. Students interested in Entertainment Law may find the seminar particularly relevant.

Fri., April 8, 2016 from 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. (Check-in at 8 a.m.)
Samford University's Sullivan-Cooney Field House
To register for the program, please email Karen Larsen.

BBA Offers Special Program for Student Members

A Special Program for BBA Law Student Members will take place on Thur., April 7 from 4-5:30 p.m. at the The Bar Center. "Transitions: From Law School to Law Practice," is a non-CLE program specially designed for law students, but all are welcome to attend. Please RSVP.

Guests Invited to Watch Final Round of Moot Court Competition

The final round of the Justice Janie Shores Moot Court Competition will be held in the John L. Carroll Moot Courtroom on Sat., April 9. All are welcome to watch this exciting competition of appellate advocates! Please be seated by 8:15 a.m. for the 8:30 a.m. prompt start time.

Final Called to the Bar Features Alumnus Discussing Life as a Corporate Lawyer

The Called to the Bar Series Presents: "Life as a Corporate Lawyer: How Mercedes-Benz, Honda and Hyundai Ended Up Building Cars in Alabama."

On Thur., April 7, Mr. Lee Thuston '74 will be the last of the Called to the Bar speakers for this academic year. Mr. Thuston is the Managing Partner for the firm of Burr & Forman.

He served as Alabama Counsel during the site selection and negotiation processes for several major companies as they chose to locate their facilities in the state of Alabama. Those companies include Mercedes-Benz, The Boeing Company, Mi-Tech Steel, Inc. and IPSCO Steel. He also assisted Honda Manufacturing of Alabama with the process leading up to the development of its plant in Lincoln, Alabama.

Mr. Thuston has been instrumental in the creation of thousands of jobs as he worked on new economic development projects representing over $16 billion of capital investment. In his address on Thur., April 7 at 11a.m. in the Moot Courtroom, Mr. Thuston will discuss the steps that led him from Cumberland to being in a position to lead these monumental projects.

A Note from Women in Law and Black Law Student Association:

Thank you once again Cumberland Family for your support. WIL and BLSA were able to raise almost $200 to donate to the people in Flint, Michigan. We are proud to attend a school that is filled with so many people that care about those in and outside our community. Your donations will help provide several families with clean water to drink. Thank you.

Trial Journal and Law Review Host Lunch for 1Ls

All first-year Cumberland students are invited to an informational lunch on Thursday, April 14 at 11:00 AM in the Great Room. BBQ from Johnny Ray's will be served!

Students in the top 15% of the first-year class after this year will be eligible to write for Law Review membership this summer. And 1Ls in the top one-third of the class will be invited to write for Trial Journal membership. No matter where you are in the class right now, a superior performance this semester can move you up farther than at any other time in law school!

If you cannot attend the lunch, send your summer contact information using this online form (you'll have a login to Cumberland's intranet site) as soon as possible. And feel free to email the Trial Journal or the Law Review with any questions.

Law School Announcements

Spirit of Service Awards Accepted

The Law School annually recognizes students, faculty and staff who have completed 30 hours or more of public interest/pro bono legal work and/or community service during the academic school year. The recognition comes in the form of the Spirit of Service Award Certificate. You are encouraged to apply and receive recognition for the valuable contributions you have made.

Examples of qualifying work include: Street Law, VITA, Teen Court, Legal Services, Pro Bono Week, Project Homeless Connect, the 1L Service Project, work done through Law School organizations like the Community Services Organization, Women in Law, BLSA, and the Christian Legal Society, as well as work done through your favorite charitable organization or your church. You do not have to complete all 30-hours through the same organization.

The application process for the award operates on the honor system – the service hours you submit are the service hours that will be recognized. Applications are now being accepted and are due on Tues., April 12, 2016.

Correction: 3L Brittany Bryan was inadvertently omitted from last week's 2016-2017 Caruthers Fellows list.

Faculty Notes

Professor Woodrow Hartzog's '03 led a workshop at the annual We Robot Conference at the University of Miami School of Law titled "Juris Machina: Legal Aspects of Robotics."

ABA Offers Free Student Membership

The American Bar Association offers FREE membership to all law students. They provide valuable services, including the following benefits:

- The opportunity to build your resumes by participating in legal skills contests and applying for fellowships;
- The exploration of practice areas when you join up to five legal specialty groups, such as the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar, for FREE; and
- Finding your first job by searching the ABA job board and gaining advice from experts at the career center.

You may contact lawschoolinfo@americanbar.org for more information.
