Law School Announcements

Vulcan Materials Co. Scholarship Awarded to AJTA Member

Each summer, members in the top one-third of Cumberland's rising 2L class are invited to participate in a competitive writing program for membership on the American Journal of Trial Advocacy. Afterward, the very best papers from the writing program are considered by a committee of faculty members for the prestigious Vulcan Materials Co. Scholarship Award for Outstanding Candidate's Paper. The winner of the 2016 Vulcan Award is Holly T. Howell for her paper written on Endrew F. v. Douglas County School District. Howell earns the $1,000 prize made possible by Vulcan Materials Company, and her paper will be published in issue 40:2 of the American Journal of Trial Advocacy. The runner-up for this year's award is Allyson V. Swecker. Swecker wrote her paper on United States v. Bravo-Fernandez, which will also be published in issue 40:2.

The Journal extends a special thank you to Professors Mark Baggett, Lynn Hogewood, and Rusty Johnson, who took time out of their busy beginning-of-the-year schedule to read and vote on the top papers from the Writing Program to decide this award.

Trial Advocacy Board Applications Now Accepted

This year The Trial Advocacy Board has opened up Membership to 1Ls as well as 2 and 3Ls. Membership applications and dues are due by September 30. Please turn them into the Trial Advocacy Board Office on the M Level. The Trial Advocacy Board represents five different facets of Trial Advocacy and ADR (Alternative Dispute Resolution): Client-Counseling, Negotiation, Mediation, Arbitration and Trial Advocacy. Each of the five have their own National Team which students will be able to try out for starting next Spring. Additionally, they conduct over 10 intra-school competitions (mainly for 2Ls and 3Ls), but there will also be some 1L competitions second semester. If you have any questions or just want to know more, please contact Bianca Svensson.

This Week's EventsPlan Ahead*Arbitration Team Tryouts Held in Sept.

The 2016 Arbitration National Team tryouts will be held later this month. Arbitration is very much like a trial, except instead of standing up in front of a courtroom full of people, you're sitting at a conference table. As a Trial Board sponsored ADR competition, it counts toward the requirements to join the Trial Advocacy Board. Finalists are invited to join the Cumberland National Arbitration Team.

The first two rounds will be back to back on Fri., September 23, with one round starting at 2 p.m. and the evening round starting at 6 p.m. The final round will be the following morning, on Sat., September 24 at 9:30 a.m.

Any 2L or 3L is eligible to compete. Participants will be paired with a partner for this competition. To sign up is fill in your information on the Google Spreadsheet. There is $10 signup fee that can be paid in the form of cash or check (made out to the Trial Advocacy Board). Please turn in your $10 to Tracy Luke NO LATER THAN Fri., September 16. Contact Rebecca Wright with any questions.

BLSA Hosts General Meeting Thursday

The Cumberland Chapter of the Black Law Student Association will be hosting a general body interest meeting on Thur., September 15, 2016 at 11 a.m. in the Friendship Room of the Law Library. Ideas for the semester, as well as general ideas of what students would like to see from the organization will be discussed.

If you are interested in joining BLSA, but cannot make the meeting please email for general membership information. Snacks and beverages will be served.

Cumberland Organizations Hold Supply Drive for Grace House

Cumberland's Children's Center is partnering with CPICS and Women In Law to sponsor a supply drive for Grace House Ministries, Inc.

For almost 25 years, Grace House has been providing stable, Christian homes for girls who have been abused, neglected, or abandoned. Their residential group home campus in Fairfield currently houses 23 girls ages 6-21 who have been removed from their homes and placed in state custody. Their comprehensive approach seeks to end the social dependency, poverty, and cycle of abuse that is so prevalent in the lives of the girls that they serve by educating, equipping, and empowering them to become mature, Godly women.

The supply drive will run from Monday, September 26 through Friday, October 7. There will be a box in the breezeway for donations. Suggested donations are listed below.

Career Development Events

Prosecutor's Day

The Great Room
Thur., September 22, 2016
10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Come enjoy a pizza lunch while you discuss possible career opportunities and learn more about work as a prosecutor. Help us show them their time here was well spent and that Cumberland students are interested in learning more about work as a District Attorney. Pizza will be served to students starting at 11 a.m.

Chocolate for Rejection (Letters)

The Career Development Office will trade chocolate for employment rejection letters.

No one likes rejection. It's a terrible feeling but rejection comes with a powerful silver lining. If you've been rejected that means you've tried. Don't let rejection letters slow you down. Take the letters as physical evidence that you're doing everything you can to pursue your desired career.

All you have to do for chocolate is to take your rejection letter and put it in our "Rejection Box." Additional prizes will be given out for the following:

- Student with the most rejection letters
- Student who receives the quickest turnaround for a rejection letter
- Student with the coldest or meanest rejection letter

Alumni News

Get Connected with Alumni

Students and faculty are invited to attend alumni receptions and luncheons. For students, these are good networking events for those with aspirations to work in a specific location. To confirm your attendance and for full details, please contact Anne Marovich, director of alumni relations.

If you would like to meet a potential professional mentor, please submit an information (mentee) sheet for our Student Success Mentoring Program. The SSMP program pairs our students with outstanding alumni who will give them a real-world insight into the practice of law. Questions? Ask Anne Marovich.

Faculty Notes

In June, Professor Wendy Greene served as a paper discussant on the panel, Advancing Diversity with Feminist Legal Theory, during the Law and Society Association Annual Meeting held in New Orleans, LA. For the fourth consecutive year, Greene served as a Planning Committee member for the 10th commemorative Lutie Lytle Black Women Law Faculty Writing Workshop. During the Workshop, hosted by the University of Iowa College of Law in July, Greene served as a plenary panelist and works-in-progress commenter. Over the summer, Greene was also nominated to serve on the Board of Directors for the American Society for Legal History; the elections are currently in progress.

Professor Woodrow Hartzog '02 was recently quoted in a Fusion story, "When an app tells companies you're pregnant but not that you miscarried."
